MUSKOKA MUSIC CENTRE POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

REGISTRATION

Registrations are handled on a first-come, first-served basis. A Registration consists of a fully completed and signed Student Registration Form together with the appropriate payment of Registration and Materials fee (please refer to Tuition Packages). A separate form is required for each student.

MUSIC TERM

The studio calendar year commences the Monday after Labour Day and concludes in June the following year. Unless specific prior arrangements are made with teachers, a minimum 36-lesson term is guaranteed to those who avail themselves of all scheduled weekly lessons. Registration is for the full studio year. Holidays and breaks will follow the Muskoka Music Centre academic year calendar as posted in the studio and on the Muskoka Music Centre-MYC Website. Classes with insufficient registration are subject to cancellation and class days/times are subject to change.

TUITION

- Tuition Fees are charged for the full year unless otherwise indicated.
- Tuition is payable in advance. Check with your teacher for details of payee and acceptable methods of payment.
- Muskoka Music Centre requires payment to be received by the studio no later than August 31.
- Tuition fees must be paid for the full lesson complement during the studio year; there are no refunds for missed lessons, unless due to teacher absence.
- Students who withdraw from the MYC program during the studio year, due to a move or for other reasons, will forfeit a fee equal to the fee for four lessons from the date of written notice up until December 31. There will be no refund of tuition for students who withdraw from the program after December 31. If you are moving to a different area, province, country or continent and wish to continue in the MYC program, please do not hesitate to contact the studio for a referral to an MYC teacher in your new location.

WAIVER

By signing the Student Registration form, students and their parents/legal guardians:

- Agree that they have been given access to these Muskoka Music Centre Policies and Guidelines as published on the Muskoka Music Centre-MYC website and agree to follow them;
- Agree to the Muskoka Music Centre policies regarding withdrawal from lessons part way through the year;
- Agree to release, indemnify and hold harmless Muskoka Music Centre as well as all its Directors, Teachers, Contractors and any persons or entities authorized on Muskoka Music Centre's behalf, from and against all claims for personal injury sustained in, on or about the facilities or in Muskoka Music Centre sponsored events such as Recitals, Master Classes or Festivals;
- Consent to allow photos, video/DVD or sound recordings to be taken during the course of their studies to be used for promotional purposes or for purchase by Muskoka Music Centre families;
- Understand that Muskoka Music Centre has a privacy policy in effect to safeguard personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure or misuse. Muskoka Music Centre does not rent or lend its mailing list to third parties and maintains strict security systems.

Please remember to bring all your required books to each lesson!
